KÁROLY SZEMERÉDY

Karoly Szemeredy is one of the most remarkable and important singers of his generation.

Károly Szemeredy started his singing career at the age of eleven years in the children's choir of the Hungarian State Opera Budapest and completed his vocal studies later on with Hungarian Soprano Margit László next to studying tourism and international relations in his hometown Budapest.

He has won several vocal competitions and in 2007 gave his debut as Lowitskij (Boris Godunov) at Teatro Real Madrid where he also sang smaller roles such as Don Basilio (Il Barbiere di Siviglia), Pfleger des Orest (Elektra), First Nazarene (Salome) among others.

He then had his first guest appearances at Teatr Wielki Warsaw (Escamillo in Carmen), Teatro Regio Torino, Harasta (Janaceks The Cunning little Vixen) at Opéra de Lyon and in 2013 gave his debut at the Bavarian State Opera Munich (Nikititsch in Boris Godunov).
